PREFACE

This Supplement to "The Eddy Family in America", published October 29,1930, has been prepared by the Chairman of the Genealogical Committee, Mrs. Ruth Story Devereux Eddy, A. B., A. M. It includes all the new items that could be gathered concerning members of the Eddy Family in America. The preparation of this Supplement represents ten years of constant correspondence, and includes more than 8700 new genealogical items. Serial numbers have been assigned and the lines of descent from the original settler have been included for each new item.

The numerals in the margins of the Supplement refer to pages in "The Eddy Family in America" and the numerals in parentheses in the text refer to the serial numbers assigned to individuals in that volume. The Appendix of 1932 has been paged, bound, and indexed with the Supplement of 1940. The Index of Persons has been limited to Eddys and Eddy descendants.

On this 310th Anniversary of the landing of John and Samuel Eddy in Plymouth, it is timely to bring together the results of the past decade of genealogical research. In publishing this volume, the Eddy Family Association, Inc., adds one more to its brilliant record of achievements in the past twenty years. Five important memorials in the form of bronze tablets have been erected at the various shrines of our family story. Twenty-nine consecutive Bulletins have amassed a surprising total of new and valuable information bearing on the family history. The annual, summer Reunions have told their story of delightful fellowship and of real progress in unifying the interests of the Eddy name.

The Officers of the Association and the Executive Committee desire to record their tribute of profound appreciation of the unending labors of our genealogist. To her alone was due the preparation of our family volume, the Appendix of 1932, and this Supplement of 1940. We have been privileged to share in the continuous and brilliant efforts of this historian of our Family, and future generations will bless her name for the achievement of her "labor of love".

Colonel Robert C. Eddy, Secretary of the Association, has accepted the task of placing these records in print, and of handling the endless details of the revision of our lists of members. He and his daughter Marcia Brooks Eddy have prepared the Index of the Supplement, a labor that has consumed months of time, and all for the benefit of our family record.

W. Brewer Eddy
President

DESCENDANTS OF

WILLIAM EDDYE OF CRANBROOK, ENG.

13 (10) SAMUEL EDDY was baptized on May 15,1608.

16 Note. Proof that JOHN and SAMUEL EDDY were the "two gentlemen passengers," who came on the "Handmaid" to Plymouth on Oct. 29,1630, has been found by Mr. Byron Barnes Horton in the Appendix to John Winthrop's "History of New England", edition of 1825, 1:25. Here a letter from Winthrop to his wife in England, dated Nov. 29,1630, is quoted, which when added to the two entries from Winthrop's Journal gives the necessary proof.

From the "Journal" we have,-

"Oct. 29,1630. The "Handmaid" arrived at Plimouth, having been been twelve weeks at sea, and spent all her masts,---John Grant, master,---about sixty passengers,---.

Nov. 11,1630. The master came to Boston with Captain Standish and two gentlemen passengers, who came to plant here,---."

In the letter he wrote,-

"Boston, Nov. 29,1630. There is a ship arrived in Plymouth some thirty miles from here, which came from London the 10th of August, and was twelve weeks at sea in such tempests as she spent all her masts; yet of sixty passengers she lost but one. Edy of Boxted who came in her told me, a fortnight since, that he had many letters in the ship for me."

That John Eddy of Boxted should bring letters for Winthrop was very natural, for his wife was a distant relative of Winthrop, and their homes in England were not far apart. Winthrop's birthplace was about five miles from Nayland, Suffolk, and Boxted was about two miles from Nayland, in whose church the records of the baptisms of John Eddy's children are found.

On March 21, 1709/10, John Eddy witnessed a deed given by John and Sarah Bosworth at Bristol, Bristol County, Mass., and acknowledged before Nathaniel Paine of Boston and recorded in Boston on Apr. 4,1710.

52 From a very old paper, written probably by Cyrus Eddy, (818), the grandson of Jeremiah Eddy, (169), and now owned by Oscar Eddy, the grandson of Cyrus Eddy, we learn that Jeremiah Eddy was one of nine sons of John Eddy, (79) and that the oldest son was named John Eddy after his father and that this John Eddy, Jr. had three sons. So delete the word "Probably", before John Eddy.

13280 ASENATH EDDY.

119 (337) JACOB EDDY was born in Feb. 1749 and died in East Hamburg, N. Y. July 19,1825, aged 77 years. SUSANNAH SPRAGUE was born in April 1749. (From a Bible record owned by Spencer Nicholson of Mineola, Fla.)

Children, (not in order of birth):

13284 ABIGAIL EDDY. (There is no Abigail Eddy in the Bible record. But an obituary written about Abram Thorn in 1899 states that he was the son of Joseph Thorn and Abigail Eddy, who was the daughter of Jacob Eddy, who came from Vermont and settled in 1805 on the site of the present Orchard Park. Joseph Thorn is buried at Homer, Mich. The inscription on his stone states that he died Sept. 7,1863, aged 63 years; and Abigail's stone records that Abigail, wife of Joseph Thorn died May 12,1865, aged 73-5-18, which would make her birth late in 1791. The "History of the Holland Purchase" states that it was Mary Eddy, daughter of Jacob Eddy, who married a Thorn and was the mother of Abram Thorn. This would seem to be an error.)

120 (784) In Bath, N. Y. there is an old gravestone with the following inscription,- -"In memory of the profound scholar and humble Christian, Mr. ELI EDDY, classical instructor; died Sept. 4,1812; aged 49 years. This stone is erected to his memory by his affectionate friends." It seems very likely that the Eli Eddy thus honored was Eli, son of Eliakim Eddy.

JOHN EDDY OF WOODBRIDGE, N. J.

1085 (11351) GAWEN EDDY (John of N. J.), b. in Woodbridge, N. J., Feb. 17,1721; m. SARAH COTHEAL; dau. of William Cotheal, who refers in his will to "daughter Sarah Eddy" and appoints "my sons, Gawen Eddy and Henry Cotheal" executors. In 1765, this Henry Cotheal leaves half of his property to "my brother Going Eddye ----for oldest sons."

MR. JOSEPH EDDY MARTIN has a leaf from an old Bible, which had belonged to his great-grandfather Isaac Eddy. This speaks of a Gavin Eddy and his wife Sarah. Another record states that Azel Eddy is the father of ISAAC EDDY and his sister Christena, both of whom married into the McCurdy family. In a letter written in 1905 Isaac Eddy's son Nathaniel writes that his great-grandmother was Sarah Cotheal. From these records and others sent me by Mr. Joseph Eddy Martin, and from records sent by others it has been possible to make out a partial list of the descendants of GAWEN and SARAH (COTHEAL) EDDY. There are doubtless many others. Probably many of those Eddys in and about Fairmount, V. Va. and several of the Ohio Eddys belong here. It is hoped that the records received in the next ten years will add many other groups to this parentage. This whole branch owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Martin for the careful work he has done in putting together the facts known, so as to make a proven line from Gawen and Sarah to himself, and thereby for all the others.

1230 .NANCY EDDY (5th item) as the wife of JOHN STEPHENS is an error. The Stephens Bible states that John Stephens married Amy Loomis Mar. 10,1808, and she is the mother of Silvanus, Nathan, Polly, and Nancy. Amy died July 30,1821 and John Stephens married (2) Sarah Haynes. Among their children was AMY STEPHENS, who married CHARLES COLWELL EDDY. After the death of John Stephens, his widow, Sarah (Haynes) married AUGUSTUS EDDY, the father of CHARLES COLWELL EDDY.
